a. As a source of information for those gaps in intelligence which are spelled out in the being briefed for observance of objects on the routes to be traveled and the towns to be visited.

b. For the collection of the publications and newspapers available in those areas of the countries which are not visited periodically by our embassy and legation people. An arrangement would have to be made to drop these publications 25X1A5a1 in the country, to be picked up by our people
